Request Number: 2018-03346

Dear Mr. Jones:

This is in response to the above referenced Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. In summary, you requested copies of emails sent to or from any former or present Bureau of Prisons staff member which contain the phrase "diesel therapy", dating back January 1, 2008.

Your request for records would require the BOP to conduct an unreasonably burdensome search. The BOP currently has over 37,000 staff, in order for this office to respond to your request; we would have to search in excess of 37,000 email accounts to retrieve the information you seek. As such, we are administratively closing this request. To ensure you are not disadvantaged by our action, if you reformulate your request and make it less burdensome within 30 days from the date of this letter, we will place your request in the processing queue where it would have been.

If you would like to discuss how to make your request less burdensome, please feel free to contact the undersigned, this office, or the Federal Bureau of Prisons' (BOP) FOIA Public Liaison, Mr. C. Darnell Stroble at 202-616-7750, 320 First Street NW, Suite 936, Washington DC 20534, or ogc\_efoia@bop.gov.

Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information, Services, National Archives and Records Administration, Room 2510, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001; e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448; or facsimile at 202-741-5769.

If you are not satisfied with my response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account at: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Sincerely,

3/14/2018
